Course Outline:

This course is designed for students who have little or no experience learning Japanese. The goal of this course is to develop four basic skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing Hiragana, Katakana and N5 level Kanji characters) in Japanese. This course places an emphasis on acquiring basic grammatical patterns and socially appropriate language use through practice in a variety of situations.

Textbooks:

'An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese GENKI 1 3rd edition', Japan Times, 2020

'An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese GENKI 1 Workbook 3rd edition', Japan Times, 2020

Assignments:

You are expected to prepare and review the materials for each class. Homework assignments will be given after each class and must be completed and submitted by a given deadline.

Attendance:

Class attendance is required. You must inform your teacher if you are going to be absent. If your attendance is less than 80%, you will not get any grade/credits. If you are late for the class three times, it will be counted as one absence.

Grading Policy:

You will be graded based on the following criteria. Students must only use Japanese in class.

Mid-term and final exams:	20% each
Quiz :	10%
Hiragana/Katakana/Kanji Quiz:	15%
Homework/assignment:	10%
Performance at class:	10%
Poster session:	5%
Attendance:	10%

Course schedule

This schedule is subject to change depending on student needs and other event schedules.

Please practice Hiragana reading before this course starts. The textbook is in Japanese so you need to be able to read Hiragana from the first week.

- * There will be Kanji lesson once a week from the 3rd week after learning Hiragana writing and Katakana.
- * There will be vocabulary and grammar quiz after each lesson.
- * There will be two field trips, to be scheduled during the semester.
- * The grammar classes include conversation, writing, listening, speech, and presentation practices. Language and cultural information will be given and discussed appropriately.
- * A detailed class schedule will be given every week in class.
