

PROGRAM

Course Description:

One on One Class (Chatterbox)

In this program, students will be provided with topics that they can freely talk about. These topics are coupled with interactive tasks that will allow the students to use other modes of communication to express their ideas. The topics prepared are highly relevant and substantial. The class set up is more informal and applies the conversational English approach. A personalized approach shall be used so that students will have ample opportunities to speak.

Group Class(Social Club)

Social English classes are conversational in nature. The topics revolve around everyday experiences, popular culture and current events. Each class is 1hour long and the topics change monthly to cater to the interests and needs of existing and new students. The modular approach is employed so that the topics will be autonomous and may cater to the specific needs of the students enrolled for a particular period of time. Students are encouraged to meet other nationalities and mingle with new faces. Through the students' daily interactions with their peers, they shall be able to hone their productive language skills without hesitation or fear.

Special Group Class(Interaction)

In this program, students will have an opportunity to interact with Enderun college students. A variety of topics and interactive tasks will be provided to allow students to use other modes of communication to express their ideas. The class set up is more informal and applies the conversational English approach to give ample opportunities for students to speak and interact.
